

AKAFUBA

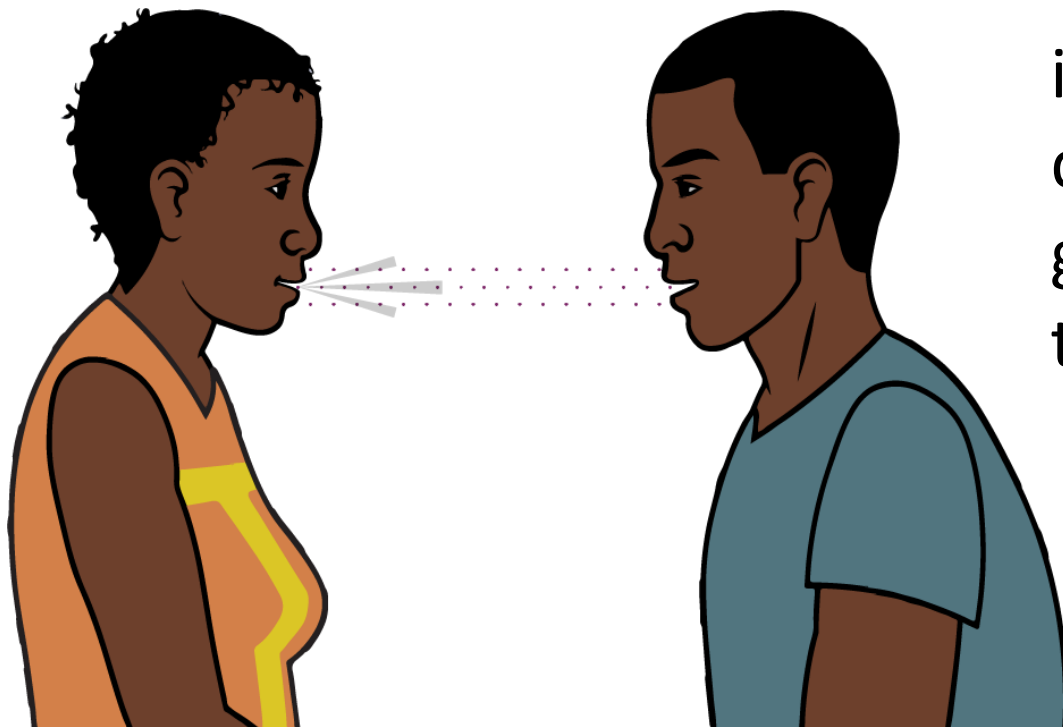

A Discussion About Tuberculosis

What is TB?

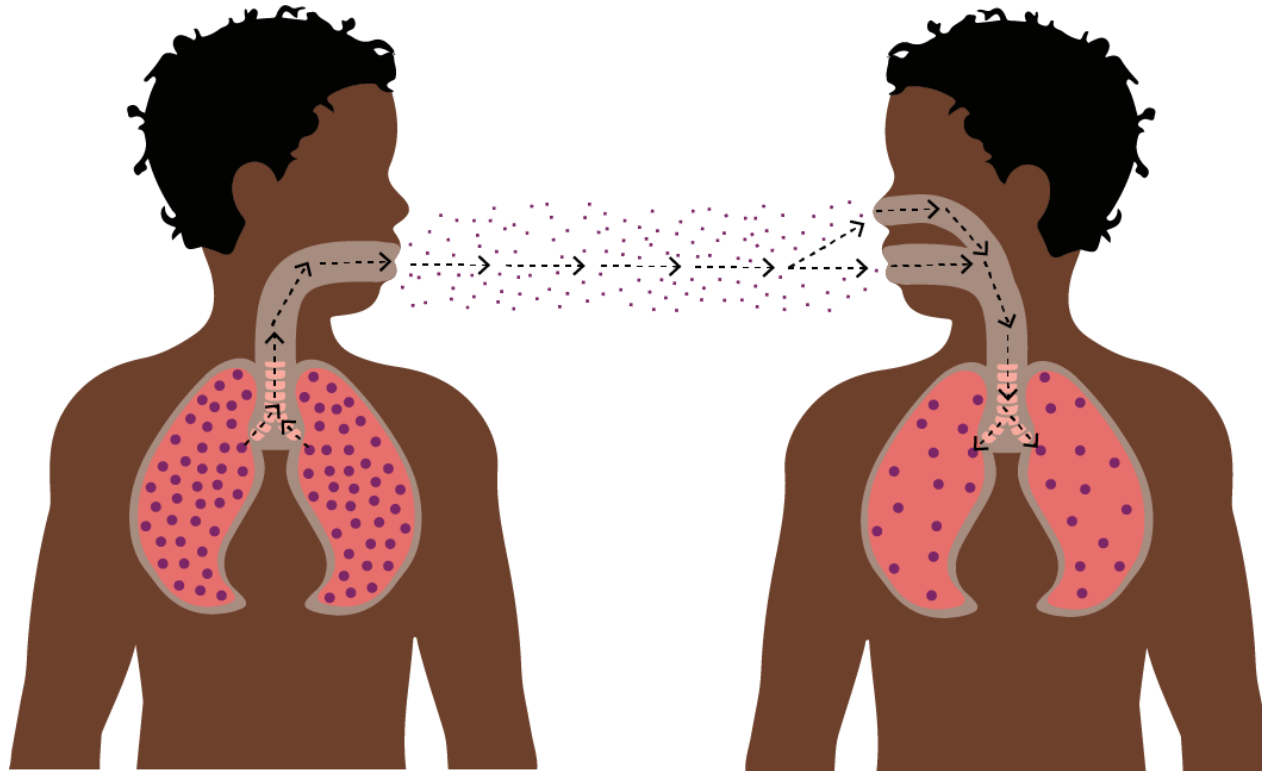

A Highly Infectious Disease

TB is a highly infectious disease that generally affects the lungs.

How does TB spread?

TB is spread when someone who is ill, coughs, spits or breathes towards another.

Can children get TB?

Yes!! Anyone can get TB, even children!

Can you get TB by touching someone?

What are the symptoms of TB?

What are the symptoms of TB?

One symptom is having
A cough for more than 2 weeks.

What is another symptom of TB?

Weakness and fatigue are other symptoms of TB.

Chest pain is another symptom

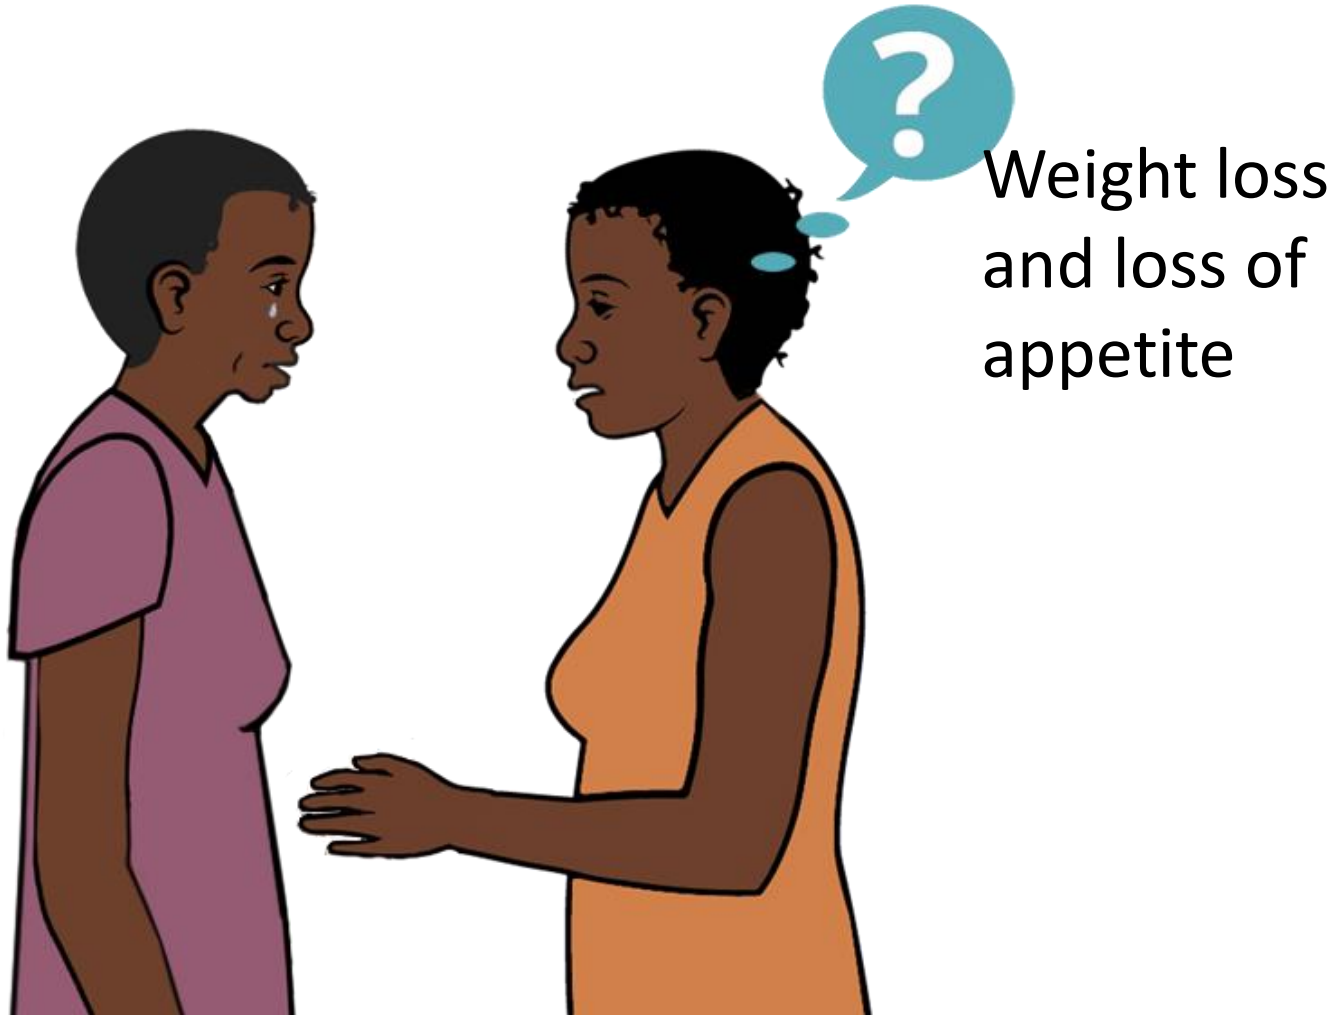

More symptoms

Weight loss and loss of appetite

More symptoms

More symptoms

Fever

More symptoms

Chills and night sweats

More symptoms

Coughing up blood

Where should you go for testing?

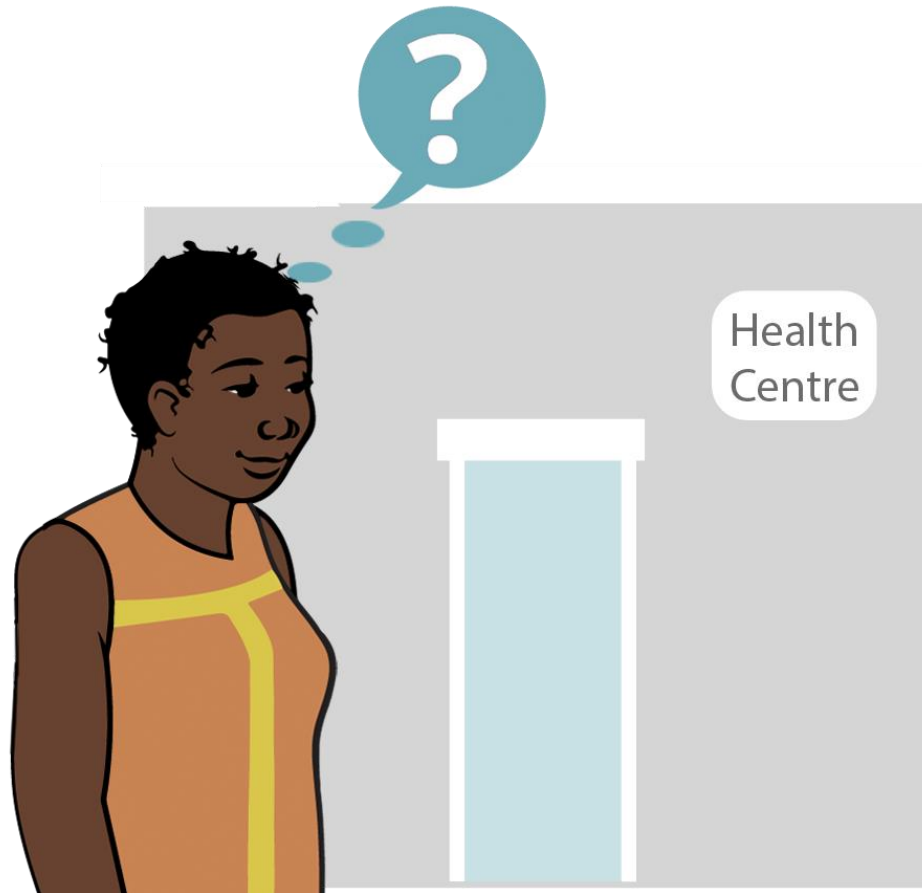

Who should I trust?

How do they test for TB?

Why be tested early?

Why I am testing early

I'm being tested early to make sure I receive proper treatment and to get better quickly.

